Antebellum South River Cruise

November 8 - 16, 2020

CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

New Orleans, Louisiana

A taste of the true south – memory flows deep and sentiment eddies and swirls along the Lower Mississippi River. Experience authentic Southern culture as you journey through living history and soak in the romantic spirit of the Antebellum era. Fertile cotton fields, vast sugar cane plantations and imposing pillared mansions will transport you back in time, as will the Civil War battlefields. You will arrive via air to New Orleans International Airport where you will be transported to the Hilton New Orleans Riverside hotel. Check in to the hotel and enjoy the rest of your day on your own in New Orleans.

Nottoway Plantation

Nottoway is the South's largest, most glorious remaining antebellum mansion, with a rich history dating back to 1859. In a fabulous location along the Great River Road, this White Castle of the South transports visitors back to an era of glory and grandeur. Set among a natural backdrop of vibrant gardens and 200-year old oak trees, the mansion boasts three floors and 64 bedrooms, and flaunts an incredible 22 white square columns. The most popular room among guests is the White Ballroom, which is painted entirely in white with elaborate gold décor throughout. Rooms are trimmed in custom plaster frieze made from Spanish moss, clay, plaster, and mud, and are all original to the house. And as if that weren't enough, this immaculate mansion was constructed with 365 openings – one for each day of the year. Nottoway Plantation captivates all with a brilliant blend of true Southern hospitality, history and mystery.

St. Francisville, Louisiana

Established in 1809, St. Francisville is the oldest town in what is known as the Florida Parishes of Louisiana. Below where St. Francisville is located currently, was a settlement called Bayou Sara in the 1790s. When this settlement was destroyed by flooding and fires, many of the structures and artifacts were hauled up the bluff into St. Francisville where they are still standing. The town is referred to as "two miles long and two yards wide", but that definitely doesn't mean they have nothing to offer! With over 140 buildings on the National Register, beautiful plantation homes nestled in the rolling countryside and bustling Main Street shops, this quaint town situated on the bluffs of the Mississippi River has a style all its own.

Natchez, Mississippi

This charming river town was founded in 1716, making it the oldest city on the Mississippi. The city is known for its elegance, hospitality, and impressive preservation of history – found on every street corner. Enjoy the unique shops, restaurants, museums, and historical homes, all of which contribute to Hugh Bayless' book "The 100 Best Towns in America".

Vicksburg, Mississippi

Vicksburg perfectly blends Southern culture and heritage with exciting modern attractions. Described as the key to the South by President Abraham Lincoln, this Southern town carries a history unlike any other Civil War city. Vicksburg was founded in 1811 and grew as a vital river port city. It was a major component to the Civil War and carries much of the history within the town. Today, Vicksburg is a popular spot for tourists to learn about the battles of the city, taste the cuisine, visit the many museums, and pick out the perfect souvenir.

Greenville, Mississippi

The Mississippi Delta is more than a geographical region. It is a way of life – a true cultural experience based around agriculture, music, and history. These small river towns have been the inspiration for authors, musicians, and artists for centuries. Lower Mississippi River voyages include a unique glimpse into a Port of the Mississippi Delta.

Memphis, Tennessee

Music is the heart and soul of the city of Memphis. Today, you will disembark and be transferred to the Memphis International Airport for your return flight home, or you can choose to continue your American Queen journey with an additional three days and two nights to explore the musical roots of this Southern Belle. The Complete Memphis Experience includes two nights at the Sheraton Memphis Downtown Hotel, which is just a short trolley ride to Beale Street, home to such musical genres as Rock and Roll, Jazz, Soul, and the Blues. Visit the Rock 'N' Soul Museum before heading to the legendary Sun Studio. This special package also includes a visit to the Historic Peabody Hotel to see the world famous Peabody Duck Parade.

Please see your Travel Agent to reserve your choice of shore excursions.

Tour Activity Level:

3

This tour includes moderate physical activity. The itinerary blends some longer days with shorter days and more leisure time. Walking tours, as well as walking slightly longer distances, up stairs, or on uneven walking surfaces, should be expected.
